

WELCOME WAS UPROARIOUS

Tremendous Crowd at Jacksonville, Fla.

TO RECEIVE PRESIDENT

His Address There Dealt With the Panama Canal—Luncheon Taken With the Board of Trade.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 21.—When the President's special reached here this morning the governor of the state, mayor of the city, and a citizens' committee of 100 escorted the President from the train. An artillery salute of 21 guns and a great chorus of factory whistles and bells greeted him as he left the train at noon. The President made an address to one of the largest crowds ever gathered in the city. After reviewing the military and civic bodies at two o'clock, the President and party took luncheon with the members of the board of trade.

The President's speech had to do with the Panama canal, which, he declared, will be of great benefit to the entire nation and to the states of the South Atlantic, the Gulf and the Pacific slope, while it will also be a good thing for the entire world. He said that the work can surely be accomplished and that it will probably take less expense than anticipated.

He referred to the fact that there will be discouragements in the construction of so great a work and that some sensationalists will decry the endeavor. But he has confidence enough in the American people to believe that they will not be swept away by sensationalism. The climate is better and the administration there is improving. He declared that the work was being carried on with respect to parties, "with regard only to efficiency, honesty and economy."

The United States has no idea of aggression on any South American republic but has the friendliest feeling toward them. However, he declared, there may come a time when it shall be necessary to interfere "when we found it impossible longer to refrain from doing so without serious damage following." An international police power may occasionally be necessary.

NELSON DAY CELEBRATION.

Flags Hoisted and Memorial Addresses During the Day.

London, Oct. 21.—The celebration of Nelson Day, commemorating the century of the great admiral's death, began this morning with the hoisting of flags on the Nelson column in Trafalgar square. The column was elaborately decorated with flowers and wreaths. Naval boys, brigaded, marched to the column today, escorted by an immense crowd, and laid wreaths at the base of the column. The ceremonies took place at two o'clock. The Lord Mayor and many other prominent men were present. During the afternoon celebrations were held in Albert hall, Queen's hall and Agricultural hall. The day's ceremonies will conclude tonight with a banquet in the Criterion restaurant.

BENEFIT, NOT MENACE.

Expert Says This of Modern Sanatoria for Tuberculosis.

New York, Oct. 21.—Emphasizing the fact that he did not depreciate the value of high altitudes in the cure of tuberculosis, Dr. S. A. Knapp, before the New York State Medical Association asserted his belief that cures obtained in ordinary home climates, while requiring longer, seem to be more lasting. Dr. Knapp declared that the modern sanatorium for consumptives is the safest place not to contract a tuberculosis disease, and instead of being a menace to a neighborhood is a benefit, because of the lesson in cleanliness and health it teaches.

BRITISHERS RELEASED.

Were Exchanged by Bandits for Two of Their Number.

Liverpool, Oct. 21.—A despatch to the Echo from Tangier states that Capt. Crowther and Lieut. Hutton, British officers, who were captured by bandits, were recently released. The bandits demanded the release of two of their company who has been taken prisoners. These then were set free in accordance with the bandits demand and the British officers were liberated.

MOST OF CREW SAVED.

Japanese Transport Struck a Mine and Sunk.

London, Oct. 21.—A cable message to the Evening Star says that the Japanese transport, Sanri Maru of 24,000 tons was sunk by coming in contact with a mine while en route from New Chwang to Dany. Fifty-one members of a crew of 54 were saved.

Polish Language Can Be Used.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—An imperial ukase issued yesterday authorizes provisionally the use of the Polish and Lithuanian languages in the private schools of Poland. Instruction in history and geography must, however, be given in Russian.

RECOVER $9,065 MORE.

Cunliffe's Loot Is Coming to Surface Gradually.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 21.—The chances that the police will recover nearly the whole of the $101,000 stolen from the Adams Express company in Pittsburgh by Edward G. Cunliffe, who was arrested here Thursday and taken to Pittsburgh yesterday, seem bright. Last night $9,065 was found in a trunk belonging to a butler in a prominent family at Black Rock, but the butler and the family by whom he is employed are ignorant of the fact that the large sum was found there. The police believe that another accomplice of Cunliffe, may reveal the hiding place of the remaining $10,500.

The discovery of the money was brought about by watching one of Cunliffe's chance acquaintances, George Eisenman. According to Eisenman's story he met Cunliffe in a cheap hotel Wednesday night, the two being together for some time. Cunliffe had a package with him and as the men were about to part Cunliffe said that he wanted Eisenman to take care of the package as it was laundry which he wanted to keep in a safe place. Eisenman took the bundle to his sister's house, and when alone opened it and found the money.

Captain Arnold of the detective bureau went to the home of Eisenman's sister and found a bundle of shirts but no money. Eisenman was shadowed all yesterday and he was seen to give a small package to the butler. Last night Eisenman was taken to the Black Rock house and asked for the package. It was turned over to Captain Arnold intact. Eisenman was not held.

ELEVEN DEER KILLED.

Town of Webster, N. H., Reports That Number.

Franklin, N. H., Oct. 21.—Webster sportsmen have killed eleven deer this season. One of the largest was a buck weighing 231 pounds, shot by Fred H. Drown with a charge of No. 6 birdshot. Mr. Drown was gunning for partridges at the time.

A fox was recently shot in the leg and crippled in the woods near Gardner's grove by some unknown hunter. Ambling on three legs, the wounded animal appeared in the Judkins pasture where a shepherd dog got after him and chased him into James Hill's yard. Here the fox lay down, and the dog laid down close by, keeping watch until Mr. Hill came out of the house and ended the sufferings of the wounded animal with a gun.

PIERCE GALE.

Lake Michigan Is Swept by Great Storm.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 21.—Reports from the harbors along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan indicate that Thursday night's storm was the most terrific known on the lake for many years. The damage to harbors, piers, etc., will be great. At Holland the loss is estimated at $200,000. Yesterday the highest sea ever known has been running. The surface of the bay is a mass of wreckage. At 8 o'clock Thursday night the two-masted schooner Kate Lyons of Grand Haven was sighted three miles out, making for the harbor. She missed the entrance and struck on the north pier, breaking in two. Yesterday there was not vestige of her left.

Capt. Ole Olesen and his crew of five men were taken ashore by the life saving crew at great peril to their lives.

IMPLICATES POLITICIANS.

Confession Found Among Dead Cashier's Papers.

Pittsburg, Oct. 21.—The sensation yesterday in the investigation of the affairs of the suspended Enterprise National bank of Allegheny was the report that among the dead cashier's papers was found a confession detailing the operations which culminated in his death and the closing of the bank. The confession, it is learned, declared W. H. Andrews responsible for the trouble.

Fred Quinner, Sr., president of the bank, stated that notes for large amounts are in possession of the bank which bear the names of W. H. Andrews, F. J. Torrance and other politicians.

ONCE A MAYOR, NOW A FORGER.

Alonso J. Whitman Convicted in the First Degree Today.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Alonso J. Whitman of Dansville, N. Y., known as the "king of forgers," was convicted by a jury in supreme court, this morning, of grand larceny in the first degree in passing a forged check for $75 on the Fidelity Trust Bank. Whitman once ran for mayor of Duluth, Minn.

Clement Discharged as Referee.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Oct. 21.—The court has discharged Percival W. Clement of Rutland as receiver of the Ogdensburg Transit company, fixing his compensation at $20,000. He was appointed receiver six years ago in an action by the bondholders, auxiliary suits being filed in Illinois, Vermont, New York and Michigan.

Eight steamers were sold under foreclosure to the Rutland Transit company, plying between Ogdensburg and Chicago.

"Kid McCoy" Takes a Bride.

New York, Oct. 21.—Norman Selby, who during his career as a middleweight pugilist in the prize ring was known as "Kid McCoy," was married Thursday night at the Algonquin Hotel to Mrs. Lillian E. Ellis, widow of Edward C. Ellis of Schenectady. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. Selby said that he had dropped the name of McCoy forever. He was done with sporting life, he said, and should become a business man.

Bart Cross Is Home.

Last night arrived in Montpelier Bart Cross, who had been on a trip of several weeks in European countries.

BURGLARS
LEFT $14,000

And Got Only $750 in Silver and Pennies.

ROBBERY AT PHILLIPS, ME.

Broke Into the Vault of National Bank But Made No Effort to Open the Main Safe.

Phillips, Me., Oct. 21.—Burglars last night robbed the Phillips National Bank of $750 in silver and coppers. The vault was blown open, but no attempt made to break into the main safe, where about $14,000 in currency was stored. There is no clue to the thieves.

LONGED FOR DEAR OLD BOSTON.

Two Girls Were Homesick in Randolph and Wanted to Go Back Home.

Randolph, Oct. 21.—Landlord C. W. Hayward of the Randolph Inn sent two mileage books to a Boston employment bureau on which two girls came to Randolph to work in the hotel. The girls came, and their names were Mabel Call and Miss McGuire. When they got here they became homesick for "dear old Boston," and refused to work, also refusing to give up the mileages, saying they had lost them. Mr. Hayward had them arrested. The girls surrendered the mileages, but were charged with petty larceny. Fines of $5 and costs will be paid or the girls will be sent away for a vacation. After admitting that they had the mileage books, they said they thought the books were the property of the Boston employment bureau.

EDITOR JACKSON RESIGNS.

Leaves Montpelier to Take Up Special Newspaper Work.

C. A. G. Jackson, for the past 13 years on the editorial staff of the Montpelier Evening Argus and the Argus & Patriot, severs his connection with those newspapers this evening. Mr. Jackson is to be special representative for the Boston Herald, with headquarters in Montpelier, covering the cities of Barre and Montpelier and other parts of northern Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine. His successor will be H. E. Cunningham of Sayre, Pa. Mr. Cunningham has had considerable experience in newspaper work on the Brooklyn Citizen and as editor of the Valley News at Sayre.

Members of Old Family.

Burlington, Oct. 21.—Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Hiram S. Conant observed the 25th anniversary of their marriage at their home on St. Paul street. Mr. and Mrs. Conant were married 25 years ago in Richmond by the Rev. Mr. Hayward. Mrs. Conant was formerly Miss Cynthia Kenyon of Richmond. They have two sons, Roby E. Conant, assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and Samuel V. Conant. Mr. Conant is now 51 and Mrs. Conant 45 years of age.

The Conant family is one of the oldest families in America. Mr. Conant being of the eighth generation in this country. The Conants can trace their family tree back to the year 1585. The American line of the Conants landed in this country in 1623 at Plymouth. In 1892 the State Historical society of Massachusetts erected a monument to Roger Conant at the old Conant plantation or fort in that state. Roger Conant will be remembered as the first governor of Massachusetts colony after the two colonies were united. He was also the first schoolmaster in New England.

Wanted to Be Admitted to Bail.

David Comelli, who was sentenced at the recent September term of Washington county court to not less than four and one-half years at hard labor in the house of correction at Rutland for conviction of an assault on Michael Broggi at Northfield, made application yesterday through his attorney to Chief Judge Rowell that he be admitted to bail. When Comelli was sentenced, the court ordered that if he furnished bail before October 15 in the sum of $2,000, the sentence of the court should be suspended. Inasmuch as the September term had adjourned before that date and the bail was not offered until yesterday, the question of authority to accept bail is now under consideration by the chief judge.

Orange County Jail Crowded.

Chelsea, Oct. 21.—Every cell in the jail is occupied and jailer Adams is obliged to make up cots beds on the floor in the corridor to accommodate the excess of guests at the official hostelry of this said old prohibition county. One peculiar feature in the case is the fact that with but two exceptions, the entire aggregation belong to the brotherhood who pay tribute to New Hampshire's open saloons, after which they find their way over, or are "dumped" upon this side of the Connecticut river to "sober off" where they are "entombed" in and in police or justice courts are found or plead guilty to plain drunks or kindred offenses.

Case With Jury.

St. Albans, Oct. 21.—The case of H. A. Dunbar vs. Central Vermont Railroad which was begun in Franklin county court Sept. 27, went to the jury this morning. Mr. Dunbar, who was a former conductor, was injured in an accident at Cambridge Mar. 19, 1904 and is suing the railroad for $5,000 damages.

W. T. ABBOTT
PRESIDENT

Proctor Man Heads Teachers' Association.

CONVENTION ENDED TODAY

Registrations Numbered 690, and It Is Thought a Hundred Will Be Added When the Roll Is Completed.

The closing session of the Vermont State Teachers' convention was held today, when officers were elected, and minor matters attended to. The School Masters' club has elected the following officers: President, M. D. Chittenden of Fairfax; secretary and treasurer, G. S. Wright of Bethel; executive committee, F. J. Sagendorph of St. Albans, C. F. Prior of Fair Haven and C. H. White of Barre.

The officers of the association are: President, W. T. Abbott of Proctor; vice president, B. E. Merriam of Bellows Falls; secretary, E. G. Ham of Randolph; treasurer, E. M. Roscoe of Springfield; executive committee, C. H. Dempsey of St. Johnsbury, T. B. Leavenworth of Castleton, Isaac Thomas of Burlington. The retiring treasurer's report showed a total of 690 registrations, and it is expected there will be nearly a hundred more before the list is complete.

Addressees this morning were by Sarah Cone Bryant of Boston on "How to Tell a Story," and by Prof. J. M. Tyler of Amherst college on "The Place of Play in Education."

The meeting held in Bethany church last evening was attended by a very large crowd, addresses being given by Walter E. Ronger, state superintendent of education in Rhode Island, and by Dr. A. E. Winslow of Boston, editor of the Journal of Education. The former who spoke on "The Function of the State in School Education," brought greetings to his former associates in the teaching profession in Vermont. He said that if Vermont is to continue to advance in educational matters the weak parts must be strengthened. The state must contribute more money to the support of the public schools.

The rural school and the rural school teacher have not had a fair chance. In pleading for a larger state fund for educational purposes Mr. Ronger referred to the $240,000 set apart by the Legislature of 1904 as a common school fund. This fund should be increased to a million dollars within the next 25 years.

The last address of the evening was by Mr. Winslow, whose subject was "Public Responsibility for the Public Schools." He divided it into four heads namely: The public school is the public's school, the child is the public's chief asset, the school is the public's chief investment and the public is responsible for sentiment, sympathy and support.

FUNERAL OF DENNISON FLINT.

Old Time Resident of Washington Buried Yesterday.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The funeral services of the late Dennison Flint were held yesterday afternoon at his home here, the Rev. F. E. Perkins officiating. A large attendance of relatives and friends assembled to pay their last tribute to the deceased. He was one of the old "land marks" of this town, one who had always lived here and would have been, had he lived until Nov. 28th, 86 years of age. Fifty-seven years ago he married Marilla Bingham and together they have walked the paths of life. To them two daughters were born, Edna, who married J. B. Edgerton and now lives at Newton Center, Mass., and Ada, who married W. V. Curtis and who died several years ago.

The bearers at the funeral were W. E. Worthington, D. T. Stanley, Rory McDonald and M. W. Chamberlain. The interment was in the family lot in the new cemetery.

Famous Inventor Dead.

New Bedford, Mass., Oct. 21.—Frederick Grinnell, the inventor of world-wide fame, died here today.

A UNIQUE ADDRESS.

Evangelist Gilliam Talked on "Palm Tree Christians."

Evangelist Gilliam gave a unique address yesterday afternoon at the Methodist church on "Palm Tree Christians," bringing out many unknown but interesting facts concerning the palm tree and then making the spiritual application. One variety has but one root, called the "tap root," running down thirty or forty feet, whereas the pine tree has but a very short tap root, but many surface roots. The question is, shall we be pine tree or palm tree Christians?

The evening audience grows nightly. The new song book, Mr. Gilliam's special edition, came last evening, and the evangelist led in a service of song. He is a thorough musician and understands the art of leading in song. He then preached a strong sermon from the text, "The effectual fervent prayer of the righteous man availeth much." Jesus prayed in an agony of prayer, but there is very little of that sort in the world. The speaker made much of the necessity of being righteous, of being right with God and man. To be living as many are and then to speak to people about their souls amounts to nothing. The evangelist gave some instances of the effectiveness of prayer after hindrances had been removed.

At the close of the sermon three classes of people were invited to remain to the after meeting in the adjoining room. Most of the audience went in and a most impressive service was held. Not even the fire alarm attracted any attention. Several cards were signed, indicating a desire for higher Christian living. Mr. Gilliam speaks three times on Sunday.

MANY FRIENDS GATHERED.

Funeral of James H. Albin Was Held Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral of James H. Albin was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late home on Division street, Rev. F. A. Poole officiating, assisted by Rev. W. A. Kinzie. The house was filled to overflowing with friends and relatives of the deceased. The bearers were Messrs. Justice Ketchum, William Clapp, Alex J. Stewart, Robert Troup, Jack Albin and Henry Powers. The interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

There were very many beautiful flowers. Pillows, calla lilies, and roses, with "Father" on it, from family; bouquet of white carnations and roses from Mr. and Mrs. Justus Ketchum; bouquet of pink carnations from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Charles; wreath of white carnations and roses from Harper & Gallagher and employees and Ada and Miles and employees; bouquet of pink carnations, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones; bouquet of white carnations, Mrs. Hayse Barrett and Jessie Huse; 52 pink carnations, his age, from Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Yarrington; bouquet of pink carnations from George Edwards; pillow, carnations, roses and lilies from Carpenter lodge 481; bouquet of carnations from grades 5 and 6, Ayers street school; cross, carnations and roses from neighbors; bouquet of pink carnations and ferns from Artella Morecroft and Agatha Bates; carnations and roses, George and James Sector; bouquet of carnation pinks, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie.

JERRY MCCARTHY'S HORSES.

True Blue Irish, They Refuse to Pass "King William" Sign.

Editor Barre Times: Jerry McCarthy had quite an experience with his horses yesterday while going under the Williamson track at Granite street extension. Jerry's horses refused to move one step further though there was no load on. The horses kept looking at one particular place, but Jerry could not find out where to frighten them. They appeared to be looking at the street post lately put by the city. The balking horses attracted boys who were going to school and as Jerry did not have his glasses with him he asked the school boy to read the sign on the city post. "King William," said the boy. "What?" says Jerry, he went over and patting his Patrick horses. Jerry drove back to the barn and gave his horses an extra ration of oats.

Jerry at once went to see some of the old guardsmen and asked them to go and make sure, as perhaps the boys might be joking him. Jean Sullivan was one of the party, and Jean certifies to the boys giving the correct name on the sign post, "King William Place." The evening Jean is to give the Irishmen a true history of King Williams, sometimes known as Billy the Bayne.

JEAN SULLIVAN.

Try "Constitution Street."

Editor, Barre Daily Times.—Dear Sir: In reading your article relating to the last meeting of our city fathers there seems to me to be a hitch in choosing a proper name for what is called Dewey or Carleton street. Now, one would infer from your remarks on the subject that some of our aldermen either showed bad taste or were lacking in patriotism in not voting unanimously in favor of Dewey or Liberty to be the name of that street. Are so in the case of Alderman Adie. A Crown, indeed, and in a Republican country! Oh, Phe! Phe! Now, Mr. Editor, I would suggest the aldermen propose to the aldermen the name of Constitution street, and if they fail to agree on that call it Bug House avenue, and let it go at that.

A PATRIOTIC SCOT.

Hardly Standing Room at Fair.

The Ladies of Clan Gordon fair was very largely attended last evening, there being hardly standing room in the hall during the first part of the evening. The farce entitled "The Old Maids' Association" was very well presented and highly enjoyed by the audience. The booths did a land office business and the dancing attracted a large number of the young people. On the programme for entertainment this evening is a trombone solo by John Middlebrook, a solo by Miss Mary Grant, the Woodmen's team drill and a vocal solo by John Anderson. The fair closes this evening.

MANY FIRMS
BURNED OUT

In $4,000 Fire Off Centre Street Last Night.

FIRE WAS PROBABLY SET

The Surrounding Property Was Saved Through Prompt and Efficient Work by the Fire Department.

Fire last evening destroyed about two-thirds of a circular stone shed owned by John Brown and located just north of the Harrison Granite plant, and east of Center street. The total loss is about $3,500. The firms which were burned out were William McFarland, loss $750; C. Gamache, loss about $350; James Ross, loss $200; Emil Martell & Co., loss $700; Martelle Brothers, loss about $1,000; Marcelli Bianchi and John Bruzzi, each lost in the vicinity of $200. All the workmen lost their tools, but nearly all the firms keep their books at home.

The fire was checked before it burned through into the part occupied by A. M. Sulla and John Brown, because the wind was blowing in the other direction. None of the firms burned out carried a cent of insurance except Mr. McFarland, who had $500 in the Union Mutual. Mr. Brown carried an insurance of $750 on the stone shed. A house owned by him was slightly blistered.

The fire was first discovered about nine o'clock, and an alarm was rung in from box 13, the fire department making remarkably fast time in reaching the burning building. The flames were then shooting through the roof of the part occupied by William McFarland, and the wind, which was blowing half a gale, was carrying the sparks into the Harrison plant in a threatening manner. The firemen did great work, however, in confining the flames to this single building, as there are three houses and several other stone sheds very close to the burned one. Four streams of water were kept on the building and the roof of the Harrison plant. The "all out" was sounded thirty minutes after the alarm was rung in.

There was no engine room or boxing room connected with the plant, and there hasn't been a fire in any of the stoves in the building since last winter and there seems to be only one answer to the question: "How did it start?" and that is, that it was set. None of the employees had been about the building since about six o'clock, and that a spark could have been smouldering anywhere since then is not probable, as none of the men in the part where the fire caught smoke while at work, and there is no blacksmith shop near that part. Moreover, there were no shavings or rubbish for a spark to lodge in.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS.

Annie Thomas Struck on Head by Iron Bar—Is Now Comfortable.

Annie, the twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas, had a narrow escape from being fatally injured at 11:30 o'clock this forenoon. She was riding up on the elevator which runs up on the back of the Thomas block at the corner of Merchant and No. Main streets, when an iron pinch bar, about three feet long, fell off the floor and struck her on the head just above her forehead. She was rendered unconscious for nearly half an hour by the blow. A gash was cut in her forehead three inches long. Dr. F. S. Ligouri was called and took six stitches in the wound. The little girl is resting comfortably this afternoon, and it is thought that nothing serious will result. The bar had been left on the roof near the edge by workmen, who had been fixing the elevator, which is used to transport things to the top floor. It is supposed that the jar of the moving elevator caused the bar to fall.

LITTLE WANDERERS HOME AGAIN.

Wanted to Explore and Got as Far as Northfield.

Two boys from a Burlington orphan school, who are being cared for by Warren C. Nye at East Barre, took it into their heads that they wanted to go out on an exploring expedition. So Thursday afternoon they decamped. Yesterday Mr. Nye notified Chief of Police Brown of this city, and the latter had postal cards printed, bearing descriptions of the delinquents, and sent them out. One of them went to Chief of Police John Hutchinson of Northfield. Last night Hutchinson got a telephone message from the Northfield officer, saying that he had the boys. This morning they were brought here and taken to East Barre.

The lads slept in a boxcar at Montpelier Thursday night, and last night were accommodated at a house in South Northfield. They were in bed when Chief Hutchinson found them. He let them sleep until this morning. They are nine and eleven years of age.

Waitfield Grange Entertains Governor.

Deputy and Mrs. H. M. Farnham returned to their home in East Montpelier today from Waitfield, where they attended last evening a reception to Gov. and Mrs. Bell given by the Waitfield Grange. After speeches by the visitors a sumptuous banquet was served. There was a large attendance.

To Form an Association.

St. Albans, Oct. 21.—At a meeting this morning of the Franklin County Bar a committee was appointed to draw up bylaws for such an association and to report Nov. 21 when the county court will convene again.
